Other Notable information:

Ashleigh is far and away the greatest female barefooter of all time and has continued to set the bar incredibly high. She is constantly striving for perfection, and her dedication and commitment is reflected in her currently holding all 3 Open Womens World Records.

In the 2015 season Ashleigh become the first female to ever slalom over 18, not only getting a personal best but setting mutiple pending National, Confederation and World Records. At the 2015 Australian National Championships, Ashleigh won the Open Women's Division for her 6th consecutive year.

During tournaments, Ashleigh can usually be found near the dock encouraging other skiers and giving coaching tips when needed or asked for. Ashleigh is also a competent Judge and Scorer, lending a helping hand at every local, Regional, and National tournament she attends in the U.S. and Australia.

It is also important to mention that Ashleigh is growing into a very mature person. She is well spoken, easy to approach, and handles herself graciously with the media. Ashleigh is also an accredited coach and coaches the Australian Junior Team as well as other skiers from around the World. Ashleigh continues to impress the many people she comes in contact with, both on and off the water, and the females in this male dominated sport couldn't ask for a better role model.
