Besides Wakeboarding, the city of Rio de Janeiro also offers a great opportunity for those who love other boardsports, like, surf, skate, kite...

The city is full of skateboarding sites, some located at breathtaking places, facing the beach, Rodrigo de Freitas Lake, and others. So if you're into skateboarding, don't forget to bring your skateboard to Rio !

Here are just a few of the most famous skateboard sites in Rio :

Skate Parks in Rio

Lagoa - Capsule banks right in front of the Rodrigo de Freitas lagoon, concrete, smooth and fast. Not too crowded, perfect for a session between heats.

Arpoador - Concrete Bowl (very gnarly!) with a smaller hole next to it, on the most beautiful location that a skatepark could be in Rio, when not skating you'll be looking at the ocean, and if the

Rio Sul - Blamed by Christian Hosoi one of the most perfect bowls in the world, Rio Sul is a perfect concrete bowl with a shallow extension that drives anyone with vert skills crazy. Right next to a mall, so it's quick to go for a soda on a little break.

Flamengo - One of the few parks in Rio that has a street set up, this concrete skatepark is new and has some fun lines, always with many trannies around. Watch out for the marble coping, which takes a little while to get used to but will make you really slide once you figure it out.

Skateboarding in Rio

Barra- Concrete small vert ramp, uncrowded and pretty hot during the day, don't go without pads!!
